The following section on page 16 of the NSHOA Rules and Regulations has been amended by vote of the Board of Directors on Thursday, October 28, 2021

This section has been added to the “Violations & Appeal Process”:

“Violation of the parking rule pertaining to double parking and parking in areas designated “no parking” will result in the following:

1st offense: A parking violation sticker will be posted on the vehicle

2nd offense: $100.00 fine without prior warning

3rd offense: $200.00 fine and the vehicle will be towed without prior warning

If the vehicle cannot be identified either by NSHOA parking registration or license plate, it will be towed from the property.

This amendment will be effective and enforceable on October 30, 2021.
